Daniel Tychonievich Joins Krieg DeVault's Business, Acquisitions, and Securities Practice Group; will focus on Intellectual Property and Technology Matters

January 27, 2019

Krieg DeVault LLP is pleased to announce that Daniel Tychonievich has joined the Firm's Business, Acquisitions, and Securities Practice Group as a partner. Dan, a long time intellectual property and patent attorney, will assist the Firm's clients in building business-focused patent and trademark portfolios.

Dan brings to the Firm extensive experience in working with clients in the mechanical, electro-mechanical and chemical-mechanical technologies, as well as software industries. He is experienced in the licensing of intellectual property, non infringement/invalidity opinions and trademark cancellations/oppositions; and represents clients in the preparation and prosecution of U.S. and international patent and trademark applications, and counsels and assists in intellectual property litigation.

Dan holds membership in the Indiana State Bar Association Intellectual Property Section, the American Intellectual Property Law Association, and the Ohio State University Welding Engineering Alumni Society. He is very active in his community, serving as the President of the Board of Trustees for the Northern Indiana Historical Society (dba The History Museum) and formerly served on the Board for Habitat for Humanity in St. Joseph County.

Before joining Krieg DeVault, Dan served for several years in private practice and was also a patent lawyer with electronics manufacturer CTS Corp. in Elkhart, Indiana. Dan's practice is further enhanced by his extensive experience as a practicing engineer. Dan was previously registered as a Professional Engineer in the state of Ohio, and is a past recipient of the Outstanding Achievement Award for the Ohio Society of Professional Engineers. He is a graduate of University of Notre Dame Law School, and will counsel clients from the Firm's North Central Indiana office.
