David A. Adams Joins Krieg DeVault's Real Estate and Commercial and Real Estate Lending Practice Groups

March 18, 2019

Krieg DeVault LLP is pleased to announce that David A. Adams has joined the Firm's Real Estate and Commercial and Real Estate Lending Practice Groups as a partner. Mr. Adams brings over 18 years of legal experience to the Firm, and will concentrate his practice on real estate development, including sales, leasing and financing.

Throughout his career, Mr. Adams has represented banks and lending institutions, developers, landlords and tenants, and other types of business owners. He has documented many different types of transactions, including various types of loans and other types of financing and leases for office, industrial, healthcare and retail properties. He also has significant experience in entity formation, the acquisition and sale of businesses, as well as the negotiation and structuring of complex supply, distribution, and other general business agreements.

Mr. Adams is active in his community, currently serving on the Board of Directors for School on Wheels, and is a member of the Indianapolis, Indiana State, and American Bar Associations. Before joining Krieg DeVault, Mr. Adams spent his years in private practice at the Indianapolis office of Bingham Greenbaum Doll and as in-house counsel with Lauth Group, Inc. He is a graduate of Indiana University Robert H. McKinney School of Law and will counsel clients from the Firm's Carmel, Indiana office location.
