Elizabeth M. Roberson Named At-Large Member of the Indianapolis Bar Association Board of Directors

December 15, 2022

Krieg DeVault is pleased to announce that Senior Associate Elizabeth M. Roberson has been named an At-Large Member of the Indianapolis Bar Association's "IndyBar" Board of Directors. Ms. Roberson's term will begin January 1, 2023 and end December 31, 2024.

In this position, Ms. Roberson will be actively involved with IndyBar leadership initiatives and events including diversity, equity and inclusion initiatives, the Bench Bar Conference, and other Indianapolis Bar Foundation events and support. IndyBar board members are responsible for strategically thinking, planning and evaluating on behalf of IndyBar. The Board of Directors is responsible for adding energy to the ideas and policies of IndyBar, while elevating its positive profile and planning for the needs of central Indiana lawyers.

Ms. Roberson has been integrally involved in the IndyBar for several years, most recently receiving the prestigious 2022 IndyBar Young Lawyer of the Year Award in November. Additionally, she has served as a member of the Young Lawyers Division Executive Committee since 2017, currently serving as the Executive Committee Chair, and having served as past Social Chair and Chair Elect/Secretary-Treasurer. She was also the 2021 recipient of the IndyBar's Young Lawyers Division Distinguished Leadership Award. In her various roles on the Young Lawyers Division Executive Committee, Ms. Roberson has had the opportunity to mentor many young attorneys and serve as a voice for other young lawyers. She also serves on the Executive Committee of the IndyBar's Labor and Employment Section.

Elizabeth Roberson concentrates her practice on complex employment and civil litigation matters, primarily representing clients on matters related to retaliation, discrimination, harassment, family and medical leave, disabilities, unemployment compensation, wage and hour, and restrictive covenants. Throughout her career, Ms. Roberson has demonstrated excellent advocacy skills in both federal and state courts of Indiana through motion practice, including many successful motions to dismiss and dispositive motions; oral argument at court hearings and settlement conferences; and discovery practice.

Prior to joining Krieg DeVault, Ms. Roberson served as a Deputy Attorney General in the Government Litigation Section for the Office of the Indiana Attorney General. There she defended the State of Indiana, its agencies, judicial officers, county prosecutors, and state employees in numerous civil litigation matters. She is a 2016 summa cum laude graduate of Valparaiso University School of Law.
