Partner and Firm Executive Committee Member Brian M. Heaton Elected to Serve as President of the Board of Directors of the Association for Corporate Growth Indiana

May 23, 2024

Krieg DeVault is pleased to announce that Partner and Executive Committee Member Brian M. Heaton has been elected to serve as President of the Board of Directors for the Association for Corporate Growth ("ACG") Indiana. Mr. Heaton will begin his one-year term as President immediately. Prior to serving as President, Mr. Heaton served as Vice President and an ACG Indiana Board Member for the past several years.

Founded in 2002, the Indiana Chapter of the Association for Corporate Growth consists of over 200 members throughout the mergers and acquisitions community assisting investors, executives, lenders and advisors to grow middle-market companies. ACG's mission is to drive middle-market growth. Krieg DeVault has been an integral partner in helping to grow the ACG Indiana Chapter for several years. The firm currently serves as a Platinum Sponsor of the organization, the highest level of support offered.

"I am honored to be elected as President of the ACG Indiana Board of Directors," said Heaton. "I am looking forward to working with our talented Board and committee members to build on the successes and value that my predecessors have created, as we continue to make ACG the preeminent organization for providing value, education, and business relationships to the Indiana middle market M&A community."

Brian Heaton is a long-time member of the firm's Business, Acquisitions, and Securities and Health Care Practices. In addition to his leadership duties with ACG Indiana and Krieg DeVault LLP, Mr. Heaton serves as President of the Board of Directors of the Westfield Library Foundation. He has received past recognition as a BTI Consulting Group Client Service All-Star, a recipient of The Indiana Lawyer's Leadership in Law Up and Coming Lawyer Award, and has been named multiple years as a Rising Star by Indiana Super Lawyers.
