April 16, 2024

Krieg DeVault is pleased to announce that Senior Associate Alex C. Bowman has been selected to the 18th class of Michiana Forty under 40, a program created to honor outstanding young professionals in the Michiana region. Mr. Bowman is one of 40 members of the 2024 Class of Michiana Forty under 40.

Michiana Forty under 40 is a distinguished initiative that highlights the achievements of 40 outstanding young adults who, despite being under the age of 40, have demonstrated exceptional leadership, excellence in their respective careers, and a commitment to community service. The program aims to recognize and celebrate the contributions of these individuals who not only excel in their professional endeavors but also make significant efforts to give back to and positively impact their communities.

The South Bend Regional Chamber will honor recipients at a Recognition Luncheon on Friday, May 17 at the Gillespie Conference & Event Center in South Bend. Each honoree will receive an award, commemorating their commitment to professional excellence and community leadership.

Through spotlighting these leaders, executives and professionals, the Michiana Forty under 40 program inspires and encourages a new generation of influencers, showcasing the diverse talents and dedication of individuals who are shaping the present and future of the Michiana region. 2024 marks the recognition of the program's 18th class! The program is facilitated by the South Bend Regional Chamber and Young Professionals Network South Bend, in collaboration with program sponsors Community Foundation of Elkhart County, First State Bank and the Mendoza College of Business at Notre Dame, along with other chambers of commerce in the Michiana region.
