Matthew D. Neumann is an Associate in the firm's Real Estate, Environmental and Litigation Practice Groups. He focuses his practice in the areas of environmental, real estate, complex commercial litigation, and business and corporate matters.

Mr. Neumann has experience advising and representing businesses, individuals, and governmental and nonprofit organizations through varied and complex legal matters, including managing the risks of litigation when disputes arise and evaluating and capitalizing on business opportunities for clients. Mr. Neumann's practice includes litigation, transactional and regulatory components, and he has represented entities of all sizes, from conglomerated multi-national corporations and municipalities, to smaller family-owned companies, to startups, entrepreneurs and individuals.

Prior to joining Krieg DeVault, Mr. Neumann served as an Associate at an Indianapolis-based law firm where he focused his practice in the areas of complex litigation, environmental, business and commercial disputes, insurance coverage, construction law and other general, civil litigation areas.
