Robert A. Anderson is a healthcare attorney with over 25 years of experience. His diverse practice gives him a unique and practical understanding of the relationship between legal, compliance, and operational issues and the challenges faced by in-house legal teams in healthcare organizations. He has advised and represented healthcare providers, including hospitals, medical groups, skilled nursing facilities, physicians, residents, nurses, and others in a broad array of compliance, regulatory, and litigation matters. He served as general counsel for a hospital system and multi-specialty physician group for several years, drafted or reviewed hundreds of contracts on behalf of healthcare providers, tried numerous cases to verdict before judges and juries, and appeared before regulators, trial courts, and appellate courts at both the state and federal levels in Indiana and Illinois. Mr. Anderson serves on the firm's Executive, Diversity and Inclusion, Innovation, and Information Technology Committees.
