Jason Scheele is a seasoned trial attorney with extensive experience representing clients in state and federal courts throughout central and northern Indiana. His litigation practice spans medical malpractice defense, commercial disputes, and product liability matters.

Jason defends hospitals, physicians, and nurses in complex medical malpractice cases, with experience across nearly every specialty, including obstetrics, orthopedics, radiology, and anesthesiology. His strategic approach and deep understanding of healthcare standards make him a trusted advocate in high-stakes litigation.

In the commercial litigation arena, Jason advises municipalities, corporations, partnerships, and limited liability companies on matters involving contract disputes, breach of fiduciary duty, and defense of legal malpractice claims. His courtroom experience is complemented by a practical understanding of business operations and risk management.
