David A. Bowen Joins Krieg DeVault's Financial Institution Practice

December 6, 2024

Krieg DeVault is pleased to announce that David A. Bowen has joined the firm's Financial Institutions Practice. Mr. Bowen joins the firm with extensive experience in the financial services industry having most recently served as Deputy General Counsel for the national consumer finance lender, One Main Financial. Mr. Bowen will focus his practice on regulatory compliance, consumer lending, commercial transactions, corporate governance, privacy, and cybersecurity issues.

"I'm thrilled to join a firm renowned for exceptional client service," Bowen said. "I look forward to contributing to their expanding financial services practice." "We are thrilled to add someone with David's breadth of regulatory experience to our growing financial services team. His broad range of experience in resolving complex regulatory challenges will further enhance our ability to serve the needs of our clients at the firm," says Partner Brett Ashton, who chairs Krieg DeVault's Financial Institutions Practice.

Mr. Bowen is a Certified Information Privacy Professional and a Registered Certified Public Accountant. Mr. Bowen is a former member of the American Financial Services Association Law Committee and the current Director of the Trinity Roselle Foundation. He is a graduate of Loyola University Chicago School of Law and admitted to practice in Illinois.
