Greg Ellis Joins Krieg DeVault's Governmental Affairs and Public Advocacy Practice

January 17, 2025

Krieg DeVault is pleased to announce that Gregory R. Ellis has joined the firm as Of Counsel in its Governmental Affairs and Public Advocacy Practice. A registered lobbyist and seasoned attorney, Mr. Ellis brings extensive experience representing corporate and government entities before the Indiana General Assembly and various administrative agencies.

With a career spanning more than two decades in public policy, advocacy, and legal counsel, Mr. Ellis specializes in energy policy, renewable energy, environmental and resource management, land management, real estate, tax, and infrastructure.

Prior to joining Krieg DeVault, Mr. Ellis served in numerous high profile roles at the Indiana Chamber of Commerce, including Vice President of Government Affairs for Environment, Energy and Infrastructure; Director of Congressional Affairs and Federal Policy; and General Counsel. In his role as the Vice President of Government Affairs for Environment, Energy and Infrastructure, Mr. Ellis served as a liaison between the Indiana Chamber membership and the Indiana General Assembly, and as the subject matter expert in government affairs, including environmental law, natural resources law, energy law, water law, transportation, utility infrastructure, and alcoholic beverage regulation.

His professional career also includes serving as an Administrative Law Judge at the Indiana Utility Regulatory Commission, and as a Director of Government and Regulatory Affairs, Congressional PAC Treasurer, and General Counsel for the Tenant-In-Common Association (TICA). Mr. Ellis will practice from the firm's Indianapolis Office.
