New FTC Regulation of Non-compete Agreements with Elizabeth Roberson and Scott Morrisson (Podcast)

May 9, 2024

By: George C. Lepeniotis, Elizabeth M. Roberson, and Scott S. Morrisson

Non-compete agreements are common in many industries throughout the United States, but a new Federal Trade Commission rule could, with a few narrow exceptions, totally ban non-compete agreements.

In this episode of the Krieg DeVault Podcast Series, Krieg DeVault attorney George Lepeniotis is joined by fellow colleagues Elizabeth Roberson and Scott Morrisson who each practice employment law. Tune in as George, Elizabeth, and Scott provide a brief overview of noncompete agreements and discuss a new FTC rule that could completely change the landscape of noncompete law in the US.
