Drew Warner is an Associate in the firm's Health Care Practice. Drew primarily devotes his practice to assisting healthcare clients with complex business transactions and regulatory compliance matters. Drew has experience working with healthcare clients of varying sizes and specialties, including ambulatory surgery centers, physician groups, solo practitioners, and hospitals and health systems. Drew assists these clients on a variety of matters, including stock and asset sales, entity formation and restructuring, contract negotiations, private equity investments, and state and federal regulatory compliance issues.

Before joining the firm as an Associate, Drew served as a Summer Associate at Krieg DeVault and interned for a United States District Court - Southern District of Indiana Magistrate Judge. Prior to entering the legal field, Drew worked as a lobbyist for a government affairs firm in Columbus, Ohio, where he oversaw the firm's state and local public procurement operations and gained extensive exposure to the complexities of public-private partnership arrangements and other forms of government contracting.
