Charles Blood is an Associate in the firm's Real Estate and Environmental Practice. He advises clients on a wide array of commercial real estate matters including acquisitions and dispositions, financing, 1031 like-kind exchanges, commercial leasing. His work spans diverse property types, including multi-tenant residential buildings, industrial facilities, warehouses, retail spaces, shopping centers, and farmland. Mr. Blood is dedicated to guiding clients through every stage of a transaction, from negotiation and documentation to due diligence and closing.

Charles brings a practical and strategic approach to his practice, shaped by his previous experience as a clerk for the Honorable Christopher Lawler in the Cook County Circuit Court's Law Division. During his tenure, he gained valuable insight into complex legal disputes, sharpening his ability to identify risks and craft solutions that align with his clients' objectives.
