Lisa Durham has 30 years of experience in a wide range of qualified plan and employee benefit matters, with a focus on employee stock ownership plans (ESOPs). She has counseled more than 200 ESOP companies regarding plan design, compliance, administration, corrections under Department of Labor and Internal Revenue Service programs, audits by the DOL and IRS and repurchase obligation issues. In addition, she helps ESOP companies with governance, fiduciary education, board composition, and board and committee charters, policies and procedures.

Ms. Durham has extensive experience with ESOP transactions, including establishment of ESOPs, second tier, leveraging, re-leveraging and sales (either stock or asset) of ESOP companies to strategic and private equity acquirers. She also works with ESOP companies' 401(k) plans, whether KSOPs or separate plans in all areas of compliance, administration, corrections and fiduciary issues.
