Alexander E. Porter Joins Krieg DeVault's Creditors' Rights and Bankruptcy & Litigation and Dispute Resolution Practice Groups

October 3, 2019

Krieg DeVault LLP is proud to announce that attorney Alexander E. Porter has joined the firm's Creditors' Rights and Bankruptcy and Litigation Practice Groups. Mr. Porter will assist lenders and clients in real estate related litigation, including title insurance claims, mechanic's liens, and foreclosures. Additionally, he will be working with judgment creditors to maximize their recovery.

Prior to joining Krieg DeVault, Mr. Porter served as an Associate with Ashen Faulkner, where he represented financial institutions, equipment finance companies, secured parties, note purchasers, and judgment creditors in foreclosures, evictions, replevins, breach of contract cases, and general commercial litigation. Mr. Porter has also worked as a staff attorney for a specialty consumer finance company, and as an Associate at Johnson, Blumberg, & Associates where he represented lenders in residential foreclosures and eviction proceedings.

Mr. Porter is an active member of the Illinois State Bar Association, and a Legislative Liaison on the Intellectual Property Committee for the Chicago Bar Association. He is also an Associate Board Member for Legal Prep Charter Academy and dedicates volunteer time to Lawyers for the Creative Arts. Mr. Porter is a graduate of The University of Akron School of Law, where he also earned his M.B.A. and LL.M. in Intellectual Property, in addition to his J.D. in Legal Studies.
