Brandon W. Shirley joins Krieg DeVault's Health Care Practice Group

November 1, 2015

Krieg DeVault is pleased to announce that attorney Brandon W. Shirley has joined the firm as an Associate in the firm's Health Care Practice Group. He focuses his practice in the areas Federal and State government assistance programs and healthcare regulatory compliance.

Mr. Shirley has gained significant government and regulatory compliance experience working as the deputy general counsel and as a staff attorney with the Indiana Family and Social Services Administration. Previous to joining Krieg DeVault, Mr. Shirley managed several staff attorneys with responsibility over administrative appeals, civil litigation, Medicaid advisory matters, administrative rulemaking and government contracts. In addition to his supervisory role, Mr. Shirley also continued to advise the division directors on Medicaid and other high level matters, and was the agency's interim ethics officer.

He played a key role in drafting the laws and rules necessary to implement and support major healthcare reforms. He also advised and served as a liaison with the Office of Attorney General on civil litigation cases and judicial review. In addition to his practice background, Mr. Shirley also worked as an adjunct professor at IUPUI and taught a family law course to prospective paralegal students.

Mr. Shirley is a graduate of the University of Utah and will counsel clients from the firm's Indianapolis, Indiana office.
