Elizabeth M. Roberson Named Chair of the Indianapolis Bar Association's Young Lawyers Division

January 6, 2022

Krieg DeVault is pleased to announce that Associate Elizabeth M. Roberson has been elected to serve as the Chair of the Indianapolis Bar Association's "IndyBar" Young Lawyers Division. Ms. Roberson assumed her new role in December 2021. She has been integrally involved in the IndyBar Young Lawyers Division since 2017, having served as past Social Chair and Chair Elect/Secretary-Treasurer. She is also the 2021 recipient of the IndyBar's Young Lawyers Division Distinguished Leadership Award. Additionally, she serves on the Executive Committee of the IndyBar's Labor and Employment Section.

The IndyBar's Young Lawyers Division believes young lawyers have a lot to offer the IndyBar and that the IndyBar has a lot to offer young lawyers. The Young Lawyers Division develops ideas and programs to benefit young attorneys both personally and professionally – both tangible and intangible – in belonging to the IndyBar and serving the legal community.

Elizabeth Roberson concentrates her practice on complex employment and civil litigation matters, primarily representing clients on matters related to retaliation, discrimination, harassment, family and medical leave, disabilities, unemployment compensation, wage and hour, and restrictive covenants. Throughout her career, Ms. Roberson has demonstrated excellent advocacy skills in both federal and state courts of Indiana through motion practice, including many successful motions to dismiss and dispositive motions; oral argument at court hearings and settlement conferences; and discovery practice.

Prior to joining Krieg DeVault, Ms. Roberson served as a Deputy Attorney General in the Government Litigation Section for the Office of the Indiana Attorney General. There she defended the State of Indiana, its agencies, judicial officers, county prosecutors, and state employees in numerous civil litigation matters. She is a 2016 summa cum laude graduate of Valparaiso University School of Law.
