Elizabeth M. Roberson Joins Krieg DeVault's Labor and Employment and Litigation Practice Groups

September 18, 2019

Krieg DeVault LLP is proud to announce that attorney Elizabeth M. Roberson has joined the Firm's Labor and Employment and Litigation Practice Groups as an associate. Ms. Roberson concentrates her practice on complex employment and civil litigation matters, primarily representing clients on matters related to retaliation, discrimination, harassment, family and medical leave, disabilities, unemployment compensation, wage and hour, and restrictive covenants.

Prior to joining Krieg DeVault, Ms. Roberson served as a Deputy Attorney General in the Government Litigation Section for the Office of the Indiana Attorney General. There she defended the State of Indiana, its agencies, judicial officers, county prosecutors, and state employees in numerous civil litigation matters.

Throughout her career, Ms. Roberson has demonstrated excellent advocacy skills in both federal and state courts of Indiana through motion practice, including many successful motions to dismiss and dispositive motions; oral argument at court hearings and settlement conferences; and discovery practice.

Ms. Roberson is an active member of the Indianapolis Bar Association, where she serves on the Executive Committee of the Young Lawyers Division as a Co-chair of the Social Subcommittee. She also is a member of the Indiana State Bar Association where she serves on the Executive Committee of the Young Lawyers Section as the IndyBar Liaison. Ms. Roberson graduated summa cum laude from Valparaiso University Law School in 2016.
