Kay Dee Baird Appointed to the American Bankruptcy Institute's Central States Bankruptcy Workshop Advisory Board

October 2, 2017

Krieg DeVault is pleased to announce that Partner Kay Dee Baird has been appointed to the American Bankruptcy Institute's Central States Bankruptcy Workshop Advisory Board. Ms. Baird, an American Bankruptcy Institute ("ABI") member, officially was announced as a new member of the Advisory Board on October 2, 2017. Baird succeeds Krieg DeVault Partner C. Daniel Motsinger, who served on the Advisory Board the past 10 years.

ABI is the nation's premier organization for bankruptcy, insolvency and workout professionals. ABI's national and regional conferences and workshops are highly rated in the bankruptcy community for their thorough discussions of the latest developments and the opportunities to earn continuing legal and professional education. The Central States Bankruptcy Workshop is one of ABI's most prominent regional seminars, drawing numerous lawyers and judges from around the Midwest.

ABI was founded in 1982 to provide Congress and the public with unbiased analysis of bankruptcy issues. ABI membership includes thousands of attorneys, auctioneers, bankers, judges, lenders, professors, turnaround specialists, accountants and other bankruptcy professionals providing a forum for the exchange of ideas and information. In fulfillment of its mission to provide information to its members, journalists, Congress and the public, ABI is engaged in numerous educational and research activities, as well as the production of a number of publications both for the insolvency practitioner and the public.
