Krieg DeVault Announces Partner C. Daniel Motsinger elected President of the American Board of Certification of Bankruptcy and Creditors' Rights Attorneys

January 17, 2010

Indianapolis, Indiana - The law firm of Krieg DeVault LLP is pleased to announce that Partner C. Daniel Motsinger has been elected as President of the Board of Directors of the American Board of Certification of Bankruptcy and Creditors' Rights Attorneys ("ABC"). Mr. Motsinger has been certified in Business Bankruptcy by the American Board of Certification since 1994.

The ABC, headquartered in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, is the nation's premier legal specialty certification organization, having certified nearly 1,000 attorneys as specialists in business bankruptcy, consumer bankruptcy and creditors' rights law. As a non-profit organization, it is committed to providing progressive and responsible leadership in the field of legal specialization. Furthermore, ABC certification encourages attorneys to strive toward excellence, and recognizes those attorneys who have met the rigorous ABC certification standards. Since the ABC's inception, its goal has been to provide meaningful information to consumers of bankruptcy law services.

Mr. Motsinger's experience in creditors' rights, bankruptcy and commercial law spans more than 25 years. He chairs the firm's Creditors' Rights and Bankruptcy Practice Group, and has represented creditors, debtors and investors in litigation and bankruptcy cases throughout the United States. Mr. Motsinger served as a judicial clerk to U.S. District Judge James Lawrence King in Miami, Florida, and as a judicial intern and research assistant to the Administrative Assistant to the Chief Justice, Supreme Court of the United States. He resides in Indianapolis, Indiana, and represents clients out of the firm's Indianapolis office. Mr. Motsinger is admitted to practice in Indiana, Florida and California.
