Krieg DeVault Announces Partnership of Stacy Walton Long

January 29, 2018

Krieg DeVault is pleased to announce that health care and litigation attorney Stacy Walton Long has been named Partner.

Ms. Long advises the firm's Healthcare clients regarding many significant legal issues, including security breach incidents and risk assessments involving Protected Health Information and other personal information under HIPAA/HITECH and other Federal and State laws governing the privacy and security of such information. Ms. Long counsels and advises clients on HIPAA/HITECH compliance programs, as well as breach notification obligations and audits initiated by Federal and State governmental agencies. She represents individual professionals and healthcare providers in licensing and disciplinary matters, and works with mental health providers on confidentiality matters and commitment proceedings.

In addition to her health care practice, Ms. Long represents clients in State and Federal courts in a variety of litigation matters, including tort claims, preservation of mental health records, breach of contract, commercial collections, landlord-tenant disputes, commercial foreclosures, and other commercial disputes.

She has served on the firm's Diversity Committee since its inception and is actively involved in the daily diversity and inclusion initiatives for the firm. Ms. Long serves as a Board Member of Executive Women in Healthcare, and serves as a member of the Indianapolis Bar Association (Health & Life Science Executive Committee), Indiana State Bar Association, American Health Lawyers Association, and American Bar Association. She received her B.A. from the University of Illinois and received her J.D. from the University of Illinois College of Law (cum laude).
