Micah J. Nichols Elected as a Fellow of the American College of Trust and Estate Counsel

April 11, 2025

Krieg DeVault LLP is pleased to announce that Partner Micah J. Nichols has been elected as a Fellow of the American College of Trust and Estate Counsel (ACTEC). Mr. Nichols focuses his practice on estate planning, trust and estate administration, fiduciary representation, business succession planning, and related tax planning strategies.

ACTEC is a national organization of peer-elected trust and estate lawyers and law professors who are widely recognized for their expertise, experience, and commitment to improving the practice of trust and estate law. Fellowship is reserved for those who demonstrate skill and dedication in the areas of estate planning, probate and trust administration, fiduciary litigation, and related tax matters.

As an ACTEC Fellow, Mr. Nichols will join a select group of attorneys nationwide who collaborate to advance the profession through scholarly work, public education, and policy development. The College also offers ongoing opportunities for professional development, networking, and service through national and regional meetings, committee participation, and educational programs.
