Partner Robert A. Greising Receives Association for Corporate Growth 2016 Indiana Visionary Leadership Award

May 1, 2016

Krieg DeVault is pleased to announce that Robert A. Greising, one of its Partners in the firm's Business, Acquisitions, and Securities Practice group, recently received the 2016 Visionary Leadership Award from the Indiana Chapter of the Association for Corporate Growth (ACG).

The award was presented at the 12th Annual ACG Awards Dinner in appreciation for his dedication and leadership in furtherance of the mission of ACG. Mr. Greising has been involved with the Indiana Chapter of ACG since the chapter was founded more than 10 years ago, serving in various leadership roles, including those of Board Member, Executive Committee Member and President.

Paul Count, Senior Vice President of Business Development at Alliance Business Lending, presented Mr. Greising with the award.

"His commitments to the Indianapolis community are too numerous to list, but most of all are his commitments to ACG. He has been a member since the formation of the Indiana Chapter, served as Chapter President, leading us through the most tumultuous time in our chapter's history," Count commented in his remarks.

ACG has 59 chapters and 14,500 members around the world comprised of investors, owners, executives, lenders and advisers aiming to drive middle-market economic growth. For more information on ACG, click here.
