Partner Stacy Walton Long Named to the American Heart Association's Central Indiana Board of Directors

July 8, 2025

Krieg DeVault is pleased to announce that long-time Health Care Practice Partner, Stacy Walton Long, has been named to the American Heart Association's ("AHA") Central Indiana Board of Directors. The announcement was made official on July 8, 2025 by the American Heart Association - Indiana. Stacy will join four additional new board members as they continue to fulfill the important mission of the American Heart Association.

The American Heart Association is committed to driving equitable health impact in Indiana through five key priority areas: women, readiness, tobacco and vaping, patients, and healthy living. Through a focus on these key impact areas, and with collaboration among local organizations, sponsors, businesses, and others that serve the community, AHA Indiana works to improve the health and well-being of Indiana citizens while saving and improving countless lives. Throughout the state of Indiana, AHA has created avenues for greater access to care, expanding healthy food access and education, building a network of first responders through CPR kits in schools, supporting blood pressure screenings and education, and educating on the dangers of tobacco and vaping.

About Stacy Walton Long

Stacy Long represents and advises the firm's healthcare clients regarding many significant legal issues, including security breach incidents and risk assessments involving Protected Health Information and other personal information under HIPAA/HITECH and other Federal and State laws governing the privacy and security of such information, as well as corporate compliance and regulatory matters. Ms. Long also counsels and advises clients on HIPAA/HITECH compliance programs, as well as breach notification obligations and audits initiated by Federal and State governmental agencies. Ms. Long also counsels clients on a variety of medical staff issues, including peer review matters and medical staff bylaws. She also represents individual professionals and healthcare providers in licensing and disciplinary matters, as well as employment-related matters, and works with mental health providers on confidentiality matters and commitment proceedings.

In addition to her health care practice, Ms. Long represents clients in State and Federal courts in a variety of litigation matters, including tort claims, preservation of mental health records, commitments to mental health facilities, breach of contract, commercial collections, landlord-tenant disputes, commercial foreclosures, and other commercial disputes. In addition, Ms. Long has represented corporate clients on-site with their day-to-day operations, including negotiating, reviewing, and drafting contracts.

Ms. Long has served as a member of the firm's Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Committee since its inception.
