KRIEG DEVAULT

Insights

Paul G. Reis named to Board of Directors for the Center for the Performing Arts

November 16, 2017

Krieg DeVault LLP is pleased to announce that Partner and Chair of the firm's Real Estate Practice Group, Paul G. Reis, has been elected to serve on the Board of Directors for the Center for the Performing Arts.

"Paul will be a tremendous board member and will represent both the Center and the firm extremely well," said President/CEO Jeffrey C. McDermott.

The Center for the Performing Arts is a three-venue, world-class performing arts center located in Carmel, Indiana. The Center features a state-of-the-art, acoustically perfect 1,600-seat concert hall, dubbed the Palladium, a 500-seat proscenium theater, called the Tarkington, and a 200-seat studio theater. For more information on The Center for the Performing Arts, please click here.

About Paul G. Reis

Paul Reis serves as Chair of the firm's Real Estate Practice Group. In practice for over 30 years, he has focused his career working with large and small businesses and municipalities in commercial and industrial real estate transactions and development, land use and zoning, urban redevelopment projects, contract negotiation and corporate governance and regulatory matters.

About Krieg DeVault LLP

Krieg DeVault LLP is diversified law firm representing a wide variety of local, regional and national clients. It is a business-focused law firm with offices in Indianapolis, Carmel, Mishawaka, and Merrillville, Indiana; Chicago, Illinois; Atlanta, Georgia; and Naples, Florida. The Firm's attorneys have significant experience in key areas that address the needs of a diversified client base.