Sarah Stites Millspaugh Joins Krieg DeVault

April 17, 2014

Krieg DeVault is pleased to announce that Sarah Stites Millspaugh has joined Krieg DeVault as a Senior Attorney. Ms. Millspaugh is a member of the firm's Health Care and Litigation Practice Groups where she will represent clients in a variety of complex litigation and administrative matters. Her practice focuses on medical malpractice defense of hospitals, nursing homes and other healthcare providers, as well as the representation of healthcare providers in litigation and enforcement proceedings before state courts, federal courts and government agencies. Ms. Millspaugh also counsels hospitals, nursing facilities, dialysis clinics and other health care providers in developing proactive risk-management and compliance strategies.

Prior to joining Krieg DeVault LLP, Ms. Millspaugh served as the director of risk management and compliance for a large multi-specialty physician group. She also managed Joint Commission compliance and risk management for a major hospital system in Michigan. In addition to her in-house experience, Ms. Millspaugh has spent much of her career in private practice, representing and counseling healthcare providers in medical malpractice suits and a variety of other settings.

Ms. Millspaugh is a graduate of Indiana University Robert H. McKinney School of Law and will counsel clients from the Firm's Indianapolis headquarters.
