

2019 Legislative Session Preview

December 6, 2018

January 3, 2019 marks the commencement of the 2019 legislative session. The upcoming session will be a “long session” during which the legislature will craft Indiana’s biennial budget. Hundreds of other bills will also be filed and considered, many of which may affect health care organizations and professionals.

This brief webinar will provide a preview of the hot topics and what to expect in the health care space during the 2019 legislative session, as well as how you may get involved to help impact
