

Kendall Schnurpel Appointed Vice Chair - Educational Programming of the Tax and Finance Practice Group for the American Health Law Association

May 13, 2020

Krieg DeVault is pleased to announce that attorney Kendall A. Schnurpel has been appointed Vice Chair - Educational Programming of the Tax and Finance Practice Group for the American Health Law Association "AHLA". Schnurpel will assume his new duties with the AHLA on July 1, 2020. A complete list of the new AHLA leadership can be found here.

The American Health Law Association is the nation's largest, nonpartisan, 501(c)(3) educational organization devoted to legal issues in the health care field. AHLA provides a collegial forum for interaction and information exchange to enable its 13,000-plus members to serve their clients more effectively; to produce the highest quality non-partisan educational programs, products, and services concerning health law issues; and to serve as a public resource on selected healthcare legal issues.

Schnurpel serves as an attorney in the firm's Business, Acquisitions & Securities and Public Finance & Municipal Law Practice Groups along with supporting the Health Care Practice Group. Mr. Schnurpel brings nearly twenty years of experience providing legal and tax advice to individuals, corporations and pass-through entities across the country. He concentrates his practice on assisting the firm's for-profit and non-profit clients with tax law interpretation and planning at the federal, state and local levels. Mr. Schnurpel also has experience with the federal tax aspects of tax-exempt finance, including qualified 501(c)(3) bonds for health care, educational and cultural institutions, governmental bonds, and private activity bonds.

In addition to holding his law degree, Mr. Schnurpel is a Certified Public Accountant (inactive). He holds membership in the Indiana State and American Bar Associations, the American Health Law Association, and the National Association of Bond Lawyers.
