Deborah C. McNear retired as a partner from Krieg DeVault in 2014. Ms. McNear spent several years with the firm as a member of the Employee Benefits and Executive Compensation Practice Group. She advised both governmental and private-sector employers, plans, fiduciaries and service providers and investment advisors concerning qualified and non-qualified retirement plans, cafeteria plans, health reimbursement arrangements and executive compensation plans. She devoted much of her practice to providing advice on plan administration and plan compliance. Ms. McNear is retired from the practice of law.

Questions relating to Employee Benefits matters should be directed to Alexander L. Mounts, Chair of the firm's Employee Benefits Practice Group.
