Mark Boveri is a partner in the firm's Litigation Practice Group, with a primary focus on handling business and commercial litigation matters, and secondarily representing litigants in select marital dissolution matters. With nearly thirty years of litigation experience, Mark has had lead responsibility for client matters in jury and bench trials conducted in the federal and state courts of Indiana, Michigan, and New Mexico, in federal and state appellate courts, before arbitration panels, and in mediations.

Mark's clients have included national, regional, and local businesses, including manufacturers, developers, insurers, retailers, and construction companies, as well as multiple local governmental offices. His past commercial cases have presented a wide range of legal issues, including claims for breach of contract, shareholder disputes, restrictive covenants, ERISA, insurance coverage, and defense of employment claims. Mr. Boveri joined Krieg DeVault in August, 2014, and is resident in its Mishawaka office.
