Shannon L. Noder is a member of the firm's Litigation and Creditors' Rights and Bankruptcy Practice Groups. Ms. Noder's practice is focused on civil litigation. While she has experience handling a wide variety of civil litigation matters, including contract disputes and premises liability matters, the majority of her practice is dedicated to the defense of hospitals and physicians in medical malpractice cases and protecting creditors' rights in collection, foreclosure, and bankruptcy litigation.

Prior to joining Krieg DeVault, Ms. Noder worked as an Associate at Burke Costanza & Carberry LLP where she was a member of the Commercial Services Group. While there, she represented numerous financial institutions in residential mortgage foreclosure and bankruptcy cases and represented a variety of medical providers, financial institutions, and educational institutions in collections related matters.
