

Amy E. Schwarz

Director of Association Management and Strategic Initiatives

Office: Indianapolis

aschwarz@kdlegal.com

p: 317-238-6383

f: 317-636-1507

Amy E. Schwarz is a member of the firm's Governmental Affairs & Public Advocacy Practice Group, where she serves as the Director of Association Management and Strategic Initiatives. She has experience working with the state legislature and executive branch agencies within state government. Ms. Schwarz also works with associations in various sectors, providing management services and expertise to trade associations and other nonprofits.

Prior to joining Krieg DeVault LLP, Ms. Schwarz interned at an Indianapolis public affairs firm; served as the legislative intern for the Minority Leader at the Indiana State Senate; and worked in the legislative and communication offices at the Indiana Department of Education. In addition to her work in state government, Ms. Schwarz also has prior experience as a political campaign manager and fundraiser.

Education

- M.P.A., Indiana University, Bloomington, Indiana, 2015
- B.Mus.Ed., Indiana University - Purdue University Fort Wayne, Fort Wayne, Indiana, 2013

Practices

- Governmental Affairs and Public Advocacy
- Government Contracting Services

Industries

- Government