Devin A. Zimmerman

Associate
Office: Indianapolis
dzimmerman@kdlegal.com
p: 317-238-6222
f: 317-636-1507

Devin Zimmerman is an Associate in Krieg DeVault's Litigation and Dispute Resolution Services, where he focuses his practice on business litigation. He represents clients and fiduciaries with a range of matters involving construction litigation, civil rights, administrative law, complex federal litigation, general business disputes, and employment disputes. His legal experience includes work in both private practice and the public sector, providing him with exposure to a variety of litigation matters.

Education

- J.D., cum laude, Indiana University Robert H. McKinney School of Law, Indianapolis, Indiana, 2023
  - Order of the Barristers
  - Dean's Tutorial Society
- B.S. in Journalism, Academic Honors, Ball State University, Muncie, Indiana, 2013

Bar & Court Admissions

- Indiana, 2023
- U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Indiana
- U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Indiana

Practices

- Litigation and Dispute Resolution
- Construction Litigation
- Business Services

Representative Experience

- Assists in representing businesses and fiduciaries in commercial and business litigation matters in state and federal courts
- Supports litigation teams in matters involving employment disputes, administrative law issues, civil rights claims, and general business disputes
- Participates in all phases of litigation, including legal research, drafting pleadings and motions, discovery, and trial preparation

- Assists with construction related disputes and other complex commercial matters involving multiple parties and legal issues
- Provides litigation support to clients across a range of industries, working collaboratively with senior attorneys to advance case strategy

Professional Associations

- Member, Indiana Bar Association
- Member, American Bar Association

Awards & Recognitions

- Order of the Barristers, Honorable Robert H. Staton Moot Court Competition