Keaton Miller is a member of Krieg DeVault's Financial Institutions Practice, where he provides strategic and business-focused legal counsel to public and private companies on commercial and consumer lending, corporate governance, risk management, regulatory compliance, and mergers and acquisitions.

Mr. Miller brings a wealth of experience from his time as Senior Vice President and Senior Assistant General Counsel to one of the largest and most acquisitive financial holding companies in the Midwest, where he was responsible for legal support and integration for mergers and acquisitions activities. He also oversaw a team of attorneys and provided legal counsel to the bank's key lines of business.

Before his career as an attorney, Mr. Miller provided consulting services to financial institutions across the United States on behalf of a large accounting firm.
