

Paulina D. Kowalska

Paralegal

Office: Chicago

pkowalska@kdlegal.com

p: 312-651-2416

f: 312-423-9303

Paulina Kowalska is a Paralegal in Krieg DeVault's Litigation and Labor and Employment practices. Paulina has over half a decade of experience in the legal field and extensive experience in document preparation, discovery, and deposition preparation.

Education

- A.A.S. in Paralegal Studies, with high honors, Wilbur Wright College, Chicago, Illinois

Practices

- Litigation and Dispute Resolution
- Class Action and Multi-Party Litigation
- Litigation and Dispute Resolution
- E-Discovery and Data Management
- Labor and Employment
- Business Services

Industries

- Construction

Representative Experience

- Directed the discovery process for a large BIPA class-action lawsuit involving over 20,000 potential class members.

- Co-managed e-discovery in a complex construction dispute, overseeing the review of more than one million documents.
- Prepared deposition materials in a case involving civil rights issues for transgender prisoners.

Awards & Recognitions

- Distinguished Service Award, Chicago Volunteer Legal Services, 2019

Civic Involvement

- Volunteer, Chicago Volunteer Legal Services, Amicus Poloniae Legal Clinic