

Art Law

Krieg DeVault offers a sophisticated group of attorneys knowledgeable in helping clients navigate the legal, business, and regulatory issues within the art world.

The attorneys in Krieg DeVault's Art Law practice are uniquely qualified to work with you on a multitude of art-related services including art acquisition and sales, title and ownership issues, intellectual property protection, trademark and copyright issues, appraisals, financing, dealers rights, foundation formation, consignment agreements, litigation, as well as tax and bankruptcy issues.

Whether you're navigating general aspects of appraisals, sales, and consignments, or if you are looking at more complex issues like intellectual property protection, formation of a business or foundation, our attorneys can assist you in understanding the road ahead.

Focus Areas

Appraisals

Consignment agreements

Purchase, sale, and financing of art

Commissions

Gifts and loans of art

Multi-party ownership

Internet web sites and online strategy

Licensing

Copyright and trademark

Artist estates and foundations

Investor Issues

New media agreements

Defamation surrounding works of art

Bankruptcy and creditors' rights

Litigation and criminal investigations

Lost or stolen artwork

Tax and Insurance Issues